ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Chairman said that he had reported the tyres abandoned at the bottom of the hill and they would be removed.

Cllr Harris explained that he had placed an entry on the web site and Village News pointing out those persons letting their dog foul in the village could be prosecuted.

The Chairman undertook to arrange grass cutting prior to the Jubilee celebrations.

Cllr Hoskin kindly offered to relocate the outside light at the hall to allow the installation of a canopy.

The Council hoped that the Horticultural Society could weed the flower beds and replace plants that had died.
