

Roger Warne

I was born and grew up in Pillaton and attended local schools at St Mellion and Callington. As a child I always enjoyed making things in wood and so I took up an apprenticeship and became a carpenter and joiner, running my own business here until retirement.

Pillaton Parish is very dear to me as those of you who have chosen to live amongst us would understand.

I wish to serve as a Parish Councillor to maintain a balanced view between keeping the unique character of a small rural village and meeting the needs of modernisation in the 21st century.

I have served on the PCC for 8 years, latterly as vice chairman, and have been called upon to utilise my skills on many village projects over the years which I have undertaken on a voluntary basis. I would wish to continue to serve the community in this way for the foreseeable future.
