MINUTES

The Minutes of the meeting of 6th October were accepted unanimously.

MATTERS ARISING

The Chairman reported that he and his fellow Coucillors had met with Cornwall Highways at the Village to address the matters raised in the October meeting (plus relevant issues), with the following results namely;

- a) Cornwall Highways agreed to maintain the verge and trees at Briars Ryn,
- b) Cornwall Highways would check and fill the salt bins.
- c) Cornwall Highways will write to the owner of the land leading to Barton Meadow requesting action to stop debris flowing into Barton Meadow.
- d) Cornwall Highways will write to the owners of the land where there are overhanging trees in the local lanes requesting the trees to be cut.
- e) It was explained that the Parish Council and householders should contact Cornwall Highways and report blocked drains but should contact Biffa regarding street cleaning.
- f) The Council were informed that Cornwall Highways had no funds to deal with the flooding at the top of the village and the only action advised was to report blocked drains and fallen leaves.
